

The Healthy Living Collaborative of Southwest Washington

Who we are:

The Healthy Living Collaborative of Southwest Washington (HLC) is a community-driven coalition that works together on upstream initiatives that promote health equity and strengthen communities. Our members represent health care, public health, social services, education, a tribal nation, housing services, transportation, and more.

HLC leadership, CHWs, and partners wear red to City Hall to support affordable housing in Vancouver

CHWs distribute food at Food Bank Fresh event

Leadership at Equity and Social Justice training

What we do:

Health in all policies and systems.

We support incorporating health considerations into decision-making across sectors and policy areas for long term change.

Connections across diverse organizations and communities.

We work together across diverse sectors and across communities to address the factors that impact health outcomes.

Community engagement and action.

We elevate community voices and support the strength and power of communities.

Shared learning.

We work better together when we share our challenges and opportunities.
